Session 1

Infrastructure Connectivity

- Infrastructure is the key to connectivity between Asia and Europe. Coordination at the strategy and policy level is the first step. How has the “Belt and Road” Initiative coordinated with European strategies as a whole and development plans of member states individually? Has good progress been made? What needs to be done further along the line?

Moderator:

- Raphael KAHANE, Journalist, FRANCE 24

Panelists:

- Stéphane AVER, CEO of AAQIUS
- Amer Z. DURRANI, CEO, Secur Global
- SUN Ziyu, Vice President, China Communication Construction Company Ltd.
- WANG An, President & Party Leadership, China International Engineering Consulting Corporation; Member, Chinese Academy of Engineering

14:30 - 16:00

Session 2

Promoting Trade & Investment

- Investment has been a drag on the world economy for quite a while, in particular Europe. Will the “Belt and Road” Initiative help spur a new wave of investment flow between Asia and Europe? Under the initiative, are there good measures to reduce investment barriers and increase investor protection?
- EU has signed or is negotiating bilateral FTAs with a number of Asian economies. How will the Belt and Road Initiative help bring Europe-Asia trade to a new level?

Moderator:

- Victor FUNG, Honorary Chairman, Li & Fung Limited; Group Chairman, Fung Group

Panelists:

- CHEN Deming, Former Minister of Commerce of the People’s Republic of China; President, Association for Relations Across the Taiwan Straits of the People’s Republic of China

- Jusuf WANADI, Senior Fellow and Co-founder, the Centre for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

16:30 - 18:00

Session 3

Inclusive and Innovative Ways of Funding

- Funding is a key challenge to the “Belt and Road” Initiative. Are there good solutions, through Asia and Europe working together, to provide long-term, stable and sustainable funding for the Initiative?
- Asia has lagged behind Europe in traditional finance, but may lead in P2P lending and crowd-funding through the rising power of Fintech, such as cloud computing, big data, blockchain etc.. How can such innovative and inclusive “new finance” help fund the Belt and Road Initiative and Asia-Europe connectivity?
